Her methods are delightful. Miss Filkins played the part of a slovenly, frivolous accountry girl extremely well, and in the first at the interpretion was highly artistic.

Mrs. Eberle's performance was better at the end than it was at the beginning. Mr. Kellerd had a wretched part, with which he struggled effectively.

Miss Isabelle Urquhart, all in black, saw "Mary Lincoln, M. D.," yesterday afternoon. I shall remain with 'The Hed Housar during its New York run, "she said, "and then I don't know what I am going to do. As for my dramatic aspirations—well, they are still there, waiting to be indulged. I have, however, nothing in view," But Miss Urquhart smiled so beatifically and looked so surpassingly cheerful that there was evidently no very carking sorrow lurking in her prospects.

Will H. Wilson is writing a play for Charles Jefferson. It is to be called "The Country Circus," and will probably be presented next year at about this season. In the mean time his play. "The Inspector," is being rapidly prepared for its November opening at the Fourteenth Street Theatre. Some of the scenery has already been painted.

The result of the recent carpenters strikes in Philadelphia, Detroit and Boston have been to increase wages in innay metances 25 cents per day. The closkmakers of Mayer Rotholid are on strike wain, because a number of Union men have been incharged without any apparant reason, and "scabs" were put in their places. The credentials of the Federation of Tilelayers, which were re-served to the Building Trades section of the Central Labor Union, have again been laid over on account of the protests against one of the leightes.
